33
34 Mr. Amaro said that CYFD provides grant funds for Youth representation on the 35 continuum board throughout the state. This is the first time we have high school
36 students representing. Dr. Robert Lozano with LCPS assisted us in recruiting
37 through the schools, we did a presentation at their advisory meeting. We had five
38 (5) applicants and chose two (2).

39
40 Elijah Myers said I'm a Junior at Arrowhead Park Early College High School. My
41 major is in Criminal Justice which why I'm interested in learning more of this board.
42 If I try hard, I can make a difference and be a voice to my fellow students who are
43 not able to use their voice or stand up for themselves. I joined the LCPS Student
44 Advisory Council. I'm head of researching and interviewing students of problems
45 with drugs, alcoholic, gangs, etc. This will give me an opportunity to share these 46 stories with the board.

15 Mr. Amaro announced that the Dona Ana County Continuum was approved for 16 approximately the same amount of funding as current FY2020. Several 17 continuums received significant cuts to their proposed funding—Bernalillo, Los 18 Alamos, Santa Fe, Chaves, and Socorro. JJAC did not approve funding for any 19 new continuum programs.

20
21 Mr. Amaro also stated the NM JJAC board is still in transition and hopes to have 22 a permanent board selected for the next meeting. There is no active
23 representation from Dona County on the NM JJAC board.

24
25 Mr. Rothengass asked what's the status of Truancy Committee?

26
27 Mr. Amaro said that a Truancy Committee was being establish and funded within 28 our continuum. There is no funding for new programs currently.

29
30 8.5. Continuum Services – JCP and JARC (Update)

31
32 Ms. Molina said that fall semester was different for JARC. I think it was in 33 conjunction of truancy. Truancy is no longer an offense. Schools are being 34 accountable for what they are doing, there is a slight process. We were
35 bombarded with referrals regarding behavioral and in conjunction with attendance
36 it was a very busy fall for us. We are working with law enforcement, SRO's, etc.
37 We are prescreening and working directly with JCP. Moving forward.

38
39 Ms. Amaro said we have meet with JPO, JARC, and our numbers in the south
40 have decreased which is a concern.

41
42 Lt. Parra asked if it was a drastic change in the numbers for the South?

43
44 Mr. Amaro said the decline was pretty significant-- about 60%.

45
46 Ms. Molina said the JARC also had a decline in the south about 50%.

47
48 Lt. Parra said he meet with schools and stated a lot of the incidents were school
49 related policies. Schools need to be enforcing their policies; we are not going to 50 cite a juvenile for school policy violations. Not sure if this may be contributing to 51 the decrease of referrals.
