8.2. Doña Ana County Juvenile Justice Continuum Board Future Meetings: Zoom? In Person? Zoom / In Person? (Action)

Councilor Abeyta-Stuve asked if Zoom meetings are being allowed, after the emergency orders have been lifted by the governor. I know there was concern on the city side if we would continue with zoom meetings or directed to be in person.

Mr. Nuñez said that he would get clarification from legal and state (CYFD).

Mr. Rank moved to table, until we have clarification from legal and state (CYFD) for Open Meetings Act, seconded by Ms. Abeyta-Stuve. Motion carried unanimously.

8.3. Internet Access for Youth – Grace Telles (Information)

1 This was a discussion during our sub-committee meeting. This continues to be a
2 concern in the south (chaparral, etc.). Keeping our classes virtual, for those that
3 have difficulty with transportation. How families can have access to internet at 4 their home.

5
6 Councilor Abeyta-Stuve said they are working to increase internet accessibility in
7 the county, and ways to fund through American Rescue Plan. There is an 8 increase in request to have internet access for families in the community and other
9 areas in the county.

10
11 Mr. Rank said Senator Lujan and Chairwoman Rosenworcel did a webinar
12 presentation on Emergency Broadband Benefit for the state of New Mexico. We 13 discussed of the possibility of contacting them for assistance.

14
15 Ms. Himelright said every Las Cruces Public School student (family) should have 16 internet access at this point. We assisted if it was a cost issue, accessibility issue;
17 we provided hot spots, etc.

18
19 Ms. Weathers said her husband is another resource, he is heavily involved with 20 this, he is working in Deming, Luna County and Lujan's office. For point of contact,
21 reach out to me.

22
23 8.4. Mapping of Continuum Clients – Grace Telles (Information)

- 24
25 • 196 Youth have registered. This is the total number of youths within the 26 CYFD Registry: 75% Local; 20% South; 5% North.
